Join Our Advisory Board

The Board of Directors for Friends of the African Union Church Cemetery (FAUCC) is seeking volunteer Advisory Board members.

FAUCC is a non-profit organization that reclaimed and restored a cemetery serving the residents of Polktown, a free Black community founded in the 19th century. Our mission is to maintain the cemetery and increase awareness of the Polktown community.

The Board of Directors welcomes people with diverse backgrounds and interests that include developing and presenting educational programs, marketing, social media, website development, historical research, and fundraising.

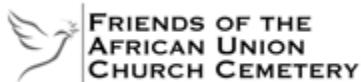

Benefits of Advisory Board Membership:

- Use your knowledge, experiences, and passion to positively impact the community
- Support a small, active, local non-profit organization
- Interact with people who share your interests
- Learn about local history and explore new skills

Advisory Board Member Commitments:

- Actively participate on a committee(s)
- Share your abilities, ideas, and enthusiasm
- Support the organization's activities
- Work collaboratively and congenially
